

GREEN MEADOWS FARM

Festival of Cultures

You're going to have a great day!

Plan ahead

- This is an outdoor program, so dress for the weather. Wear your play clothes and comfortable shoes.
- Brown bag your lunches. There are large areas of grass so you may want to bring blankets to sit on.
- Inform your bus company of the program location and send them our direction sheet.
- Give every teacher in your group our pre-trip information.

Concessions & other activities

Snacks • Water • Souvenirs

Animal Feed • Archery

Rates

$8.00 per person for advance payment

$9.00 per person at the gate

Reservations Required

Gates open at 9:30 a.m. We recommend all visitors arrive by 11:00 a.m. We offer a festival environment that may involve 2 to 4 hours depending on the pace of your group.

Schedule 2012

Connecticut

May 22 – May 24

Orange Fairgrounds • Orange, CT

Queens

May 29 – June 15

Alley Park • Bayside, NY

For Reservations Call

Connecticut
203-891-2016

Queens
718-470-0224

Enjoy your world!

For more information

www.visitgreenmeadowsfarm.com

Photographer: Jason Reilly

Spring 2012

Scott Sinquah
of the Hopi Nation

Witness the beauty and mystique of Native

American music and dancing. Observe with interest and amazement as the acrobats of

Asia perform their feats of strength and agility. Join the people of

Central Africa in song and dance. Listen and learn from colorful stories about village life. SEE the beauty and grace of Spanish America. Watch and listen as the love of their country comes alive through music!

Your day

includes several shows plus:

- * gain an understanding of the many cultures in our neighborhoods.
- * see our birds of prey fly, such as hawks, falcons and owls.
- * play "Tug-of-War" and more.

TRAVEL THE WORLD WITHOUT LEAVING YOUR HOMELAND!